

Privacy Policy of EMB Solicitors

EMB Solicitors (EMB) is committed to preserving the privacy of all visitors to www.embsolicitors.co.uk (Website). Please read the following privacy policy to understand how we use and protect the information that you provide to us.

By registering on this Website, you consent to the collection, use and transfer of your information under the terms of this policy.

Information that we collect from you

When you visit or register your details on or via our Website you may be asked to provide certain information about yourself including your name and contact details. We may also collect information about your usage of our Website as well as information about you from messages you post to the Website and e-mails or letters you send to us.

Use of your information

Your information will assist us to better administer, support, improve and develop our business.

In particular, we may use your information to contact you for your views on our services and to notify you occasionally about important changes or developments to the Website or our services. Further, where you have consented, we might also use your information to let you know about other products and services which we offer which may be of interest to you and we may do so by contacting you by post, telephone or fax, as well as by e-mail. If you change your mind about being contacted in the future, please let us know.

Disclosure of your information

The information you provide to us may be given to other parties who we use to provide support services. We may also pass your information to parties who act for us and provide assistance in developing and marketing our business. You will not be contacted by these parties directly unless you have given us your express consent. EMB will, at all times, control and be responsible for the use of your information.

If our business enters into a joint venture with or is sold to or merged with another business entity, your information may be disclosed to our new business partners or owners.

Unless required to do so by law, we will not otherwise share, sell or distribute any of the information you provide to us without your consent.

Cookies

Cookies are small amounts of information which we store on your computer. Unless you have indicated your objection when disclosing your details to us, our system will issue cookies to your computer when you log on to the Website. Cookies make it easier for you to log on to and use the Website during future visits. They also allow us to monitor website traffic and to personalise the content of the Website for you. You may set up your computer to reject cookies although, in that case, you may not be able to use certain features on our Website.

Security and data retention

We employ security measures to protect your information from access by unauthorised persons and against unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction and damage. We will retain your information for a reasonable period or as long as the law requires.

Accessing and updating

You are entitled to see the information held about you and you may ask us to make any necessary changes to ensure that it is accurate and kept up to date. If you wish to do this, please contact us. We are entitled by law to charge a fee of £10 to meet our costs in providing you with details of the information we hold about you.

Changes to our privacy policy

Any changes to our privacy policy in the future will be posted to the Website and, where appropriate, through e-mail notification.
